

Faye D Bussin

Mediation experience

Faye has worked in the public sector as an accredited mediator since 2000 and has been a mediation practice supervisor for 8 years. She has trained in community, workplace, restorative justice and commercial mediation but her real area of expertise is in workplace mediation, an area in which she has an extensive amount of experience. In particular, aside from the typical disputes between staff in the workplace, Faye has conducted a number of mediations involving disputes in schools and the NHS.

Faye also holds a Certificate in Counselling and has experience delivering mediation training.

Professional experience

Faye has been a Company Secretary/Director in her family ophthalmic company for over 25 years. She has also worked in insurance and manufacturing.

She has extensive experience in the voluntary sector: over a number of years, she has been a lay chair on a complaints review panel for a Strategic Health Authority, lay chair on a patient review panel for a Mental Health Trust and a lay chair for an Education Admissions Panel.

Other information

In 2011 Faye appeared on a programme “Neighbourhood Nightmares”, for Sky TV in which she was filmed conducting a neighbourhood mediation case.