

Joanna Lewis

Mediation experience

Joanna offers a facilitative approach to mediations ensuring all participants have their voice heard. Her well practised people handling skills, an ability to listen and quickly spot the key issues in a dispute, challenging questioning and creative thinking provide the best problem solving environment in which to succeed in a mediation.

Joanna mediates in a variety of areas including:

- Commercial, contract and tort disputes
- Employment and workplace disputes
- Schools and education
- Landlord and tenant
- Boundary and property disputes
- Neighbour and community disputes
- Professional negligence
- Personal injury
- Clinical negligence

Professional experience

Joanna is also a practising barrister in the fields of personal injury and clinical negligence. She has a wide experience of insurance and commercial disputes. Sensitive client care and confident advocacy have earned her commendation from the judiciary, professional and lay clients. Her legal training and background makes her an ideal choice for mediating complex disputes as well as cases involving difficult individuals.