

Joanne Deveney

Mediation experience

Joanne is an accredited civil/commercial mediator and solicitor. Having achieved positive results in mediations conducted within her legal practice, she decided to become a full time mediator. Joanne believes that mediation can bring great benefits to all that engage in the process and her successful track record illustrates this. Joanne's creative thinking enables her to make progress in almost any type of situation when mediating and it is this skill which helps parties reach agreements time and time again. With experience of a wide range of disputes, Joanne is able to mediate across a broad spectrum of legal issues.

Professional experience

Before becoming a full time mediator, Joanne had a successful career for 18 years as a solicitor. For 15 of those years, she was a Partner and Head of the Litigation Department at 2 well respected law firms. During her extensive legal career, Joanne represented clients in a number of reported cases, strengthening her reputation within the legal industry.

Other information

Joanne is a keen runner and enjoys participating in marathons and supporting her three children in their sporting activities.
