Mediation experience

Kadir Abdul is an accredited Civil / Commercial Mediator, he currently sits on the panel of mediators for Align Mediation, he is a member of the Civil Mediation Council (CMC), and is also an associate member of BIMA (Belief In Mediation & Arbitration).

Kadir has been trained by Barrister Steve Hancox on behalf of Align Mediation; he has since been on mediation observations ranging from; complex boundary disputes between neighbours, commercial contractual disputes involving giant retail outlets and distributors, and payment disputes involving a large construction company and sub-contractor all of which resulted in successful settlements.

Kadir has shadowed and learnt from highly experienced mediators many of whom are successful Barristers and former Judges on mediation sessions.

Kadir acquired skills that are considered to be essential in being an effective mediator, critically patient and the ability to remain impartial. He is also creative in helping to find a resolution to conflicts with an understanding of how people behave when they are in conflict. He has excellent listening skills and the ability to let people reach their own solutions, rather than directing them. He can work with people from all walks of life
