

Leanne Schrouder

Mediation experience

Leanne has had extensive experience mediating a large amount of court referred civil and commercial mediations.

In particular, Leanne specialises in disputes which have arisen between Landlord and Tenants, Sellers and Buyers of property and disputes between neighbouring property owners.

Leanne has also acquired a great number of mediations from various local firms of solicitors in the West Midlands region who instruct her on a regular basis to mediate cases on behalf of their firm. This continuous case load of referred mediations is evidence of just how effective Leanne is as a mediator and the parties involved have always been highly impressed by her style and ability to achieve a settlement.

Professional experience

Leanne has had extensive academic and practical experience within the legal industry.

She has a background in housing management and anti-social behaviour and was called to the Bar in 2009 to practice as a barrister.

Leanne has recently qualified as a solicitor and has particular expertise in dealing with portfolios of residential and commercial property transactions and in the acquisitions and disposal of investment properties for private landlords.
